

NEXTGEN SOLUTION AWARD

Discovering the Future of Connected Work

Award Overview:

This award recognizes a startup or emerging company that is reshaping the future of logistics, manufacturing, or supply chain operations through bold, human-centered innovation. Whether it's wearable tech, robotics, AI-driven workflows, or intelligent software platforms - we're looking for the next big thing that aligns with ProGlove's vision of smarter, safer, and more connected frontline work.

Our goal is to highlight rising solutions that inspire customers, challenge the status quo, and position ProPulse as the home of forward-thinking technology.

Who Should Apply:

Startups and early-stage innovators who:

- Offer a scalable or disruptive solution in logistics, operations, or industrial tech
- Align with ProGlove's mission of empowering the human worker
- Bring new energy, thinking, or tools to the digital shopfloor

What You Submit:

A short nomination form (2–3 questions):

- What problem does your startup solve, and why does it matter now?
- How does your solution support smarter, safer, or more human-first work?
- What makes your technology unique or trend-setting?
- Optional: Short product video, demo image, or customer quote

Selection Process:

- Applications reviewed by ProGlove's internal jury & innovation team
- Top 3 Finalists announced ahead of ProPulse and invited to a live 5-minute pitch on stage
- Winner selected and revealed at the ProPulse Award Ceremony

What the Winner Gets:

- Trophy presented live on stage at ProPulse 2026
- Featured in ProGlove's post-event trend radar, blog, and social media
- Photo with ProGlove leadership + industry visibility
- Opportunity for deeper conversation with ProGlove ecosystem and customers

Why It Matters:

Winning the NextGen Solution Award signals your role in shaping what's next. You'll be seen by ProGlove customers and partners as part of the future they should care about - and gives you the stage to prove it.

ProPulse is where frontline innovation meets visibility. Be part of the trend radar.
